“MY BEST SCHOOL YEAR EVER!”

A WORKSHOP FOR PARENTS AND THEIR KIDS THAT STRUGGLE IN SCHOOL

- Do you have a student who is extremely intelligent but struggles to get credit for their smarts?
- Does your child or adolescent struggle to turn in assignments?
- Is your child's backpack a nightmare, resembling a crime scene?
- Does your child know the exact percentage needed to pass their class yet is flunking math?
- It's 11 pm and you're at the table with your kid saying, "My teacher never explained this. How do I do this?"
- Would you love for your kid to say at the end of the year, "This was my best school year ever!"?

Well then, this workshop on Wednesday, August 20th at 6pm might be just what your family needs...

Red Cliff Counseling and Wellness is proud to announce that we now offer individualized student success resources through the Taylor Learning Center. The educators from Taylor Learning Center will provide a workshop at the Red Cliff Counseling and Wellness office to help provide parents with hope and resources as well as provide a strategy for students to start the year more organized and ready for success.

The Taylor Learning Center team provides highly trained educators who have learned how to best support learning for those who struggle with concentration, hyperactivity, distractibility, or simply need basic organizational strategies. Their educators offer: homework support, academic and skill reinforcement, contacting student's teachers through e-mail and conferencing, attending IEP's and parent teacher's conferences, checking missing assignments, and modeling for parents helpful skills for working with their student. They will also be available after the workshop to answer any of your questions or assist in getting you set up with an individualized consultation for your student.

We have limited seating, please email Lisa Warner to reserve your seats: lisawarner@redcliffcounselingandwellness.org. We would be happy to schedule future workshops in the future if you're unable to attend this event but would need a count of who's interested by email as well. If you have any questions, you can call Lisa Warner at (801)725-8431.

Parents and students, come spend an hour with us and let's "FIND A WAY" to make this the best school year ever!
